

CRN Academic Scholarship for Individuals with Cystinosis

Instructions

The Cystinosis Research Network (CRN) has established a scholarship fund to provide supplemental financial assistance to a student diagnosed with cystinosis who is enrolling in a regionally accredited college or vocational program, or who is currently attending a post-secondary school. The scholarship award, $2,000, is contingent upon the winner's acceptance to an accredited college, university, or vocational program or documentation of continued enrollment, and will be payable directly to the educational institution for tuition. An application form is available on the CRN website at: www.cystinosis.org/scholarships . For more information, contact info@cystinosis.org.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE: Submit the application form online. Once the application is received you will be notified by the Scholarship Committee. We will ask you to submit the following documentation:

1. Documentation/verification of Cystinosis (e.g. physician's letter)
2. A copy of your high school transcript
3. Two letters of recommendation from current teachers/faculty members and/or counselors regarding applicant's scholastic aptitude and personal qualifications
4. An essay of how Cystinosis has impacted your life and what this scholarship would mean to you.

JUDGING CRITERIA: The essay will be judged on the basis of rationale, grammar and comprehension. Transcripts and letters of recommendation will be considered in the final decision with Grade Point Average (GPA), courses taken and class standing used as part of the evaluation. The CRN Board's scholarship committee will evaluate each applicant. CRN reserves the right to interview applicants (if needed) before selections are made. The decisions of the committee are final.
